DRAMA The film tells the story of a group of Israeli teenagers who come to Poland for a tour of the Holocaust memorial sites. The main characters of the film are three friends: Nitzan, Frisch and Ido, who are just at the height of the hormonal storm accompanying adolescence. During their stay in Poland, they have to deal with both the great dramas of history and the everyday dilemmas of teenage reality.

COMEDY A Truly Blockbuster In Israel! In this romantic comedy, Moti Bernstein, a Yeshiva student who is considered a great Torah scholar, is reaching a period when he must start dating (done by matching in the orthodox community). As someone who is considered the most desirable match in the ultra-orthodox sector, Moti begins to meet the best girls of the sector in Israel and abroad, but when he encounters Nehami, the only girl with whom he will not be able to match due to her eastern origin, he asks Baruch Auerbach - an aging bachelor and the matchmaker's personal assistant - to help him reach out for her.
